BECOME AN ENF 2018 PATRON

Did you know that it costs approximately £300,000 to produce the East Neuk Festival? And that the real cost of an ENF ticket (if you were to divide our budget by the number of attendees) would be about £72? Yet we are able to charge less than a quarter of that on average, and ensure that as many people as possible are able to come to concerts.

It takes a surprising amount of resources to plan, prepare and present ENF and to bring the world's very best performers to the East Neuk. The festival is organized by only a few part-time staff and we are proud to run a very tight ship.

We have earned the support of public bodies, trusts and foundations, as well as individual patrons. We are grateful to them all but it is our patrons who continue to be the primary source of our income. Many of you have already given us your support for 2018 and we warmly thank you. Because ENF 2018 will again feature the Retreat, by supporting us now you are also nurturing the next generation of outstanding musicians, helping them to keep the music we all love as vibrant as it is now.

There are many good causes that deserve your support but we hope we are one of them.

Please become an ENF 2018 Patron and help keep this tight ship afloat, our ticket prices affordable and the artistic standards world-class!
